Organ Recital – February 28th

Our Music Director, Kimberly Hess will perform an organ concert on Sunday, February, 28th, at 3:00 p.m. in the afternoon at St. Dominic Catholic Church at 630 E Street Southwest, Washington, DC 20024. Works by Bach, DeGrigny, Schumann and Liszt. A free will offering will be collected and all are welcome.

A Word From Fr. Drummond

As we begin our second week of Lent, I am happy to report that St. Catherine's, as a parish, is off to a good start with the Bishop's Lenten Appeal. By the end of the first in-pew registration, our parish had pledged half of its goal of $240,000. That is very gratifying to me, as your pastor, and I thank everyone who has pledged from the bottom of my heart.

Contrary to its name, the Bishop's Lenten Appeal, is not about the Bishop: it is about the Diocese and the spread of the Gospel. Whether or not one likes the Bishop personally or approves of the bishops, as a whole, should not come into play in deciding whether or not to contribute to the Bishop's Lenten Appeal. All the funds collected in the BLA stay in the Diocese of Arlington. They do not go to the Bishop personally, but help to fund the Diocese and its many programs which spread the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. From funding the formation of our future priests, to assisting the homeless and the hungry, to efforts in defense of Life, the Bishop's Lenten Appeal is involved with it all and is vital to the continued spiritual growth and health of our Diocese.

Finally, I would like to add a few words about our Bishop. Whether he is helping people off the bus, when on the Catholic Distance University pilgrimage to the holy sites of our faith or praying outside of local abortion clinics, Bishop Loverde is everything that a successor of the Apostles should be. His compassion for the suffering is amply attested to by his unparalleled outreach to victims of sexual abuse: in Masses, prayer sessions and individual meetings. His orthodoxy is attested to by the continuing formation he affords his priests. When the new General Instruction of the Roman Missal was promulgated several years ago, The Diocese of Arlington was one of the few dioceses, in the United States, to have a workshop for its priests on implementing the new instructions. Both the number and the traditional beauty of the many new parishes, built under Bishop Loverde, further testify to this. We in Arlington do not always realize just how blessed we are in our Bishop.

If the Bishop's Lenten Appeal were about the Bishop personally, which it is not, I would still have no problem in urging all to give and to give generously. Again I thank everyone who has participated in the Bishop's Lenten Appeal and at the same time I encourage anyone who has not yet contributed to strongly consider doing so. The theme this year is "Charity is Faith in Action". It is a powerful way in which to actively take part in the spreading of the Gospel.

Contributions and Special Collection

Thank you for your Faith Direct contributions. As you can imagine, with so few people able to make it to Mass, the automatic payments from Faith Direct were a Godsend. One weekend we only took in $2,500 in contributions, but we received $5,000 in Faith Direct money, greatly helping our cash-flow position. If you wish to have your contribution become automatic, please contact Faith Direct online at faithdirect.org. Our Parish number is VA129.

I also wish to thank those who were unable to attend Mass but made "catch-up" contributions. The Church is expensive to run, even more so with at least $30,000 of unexpected snow and tree limb removal. The Diocese has designated Sunday March 7th for "catch-up" contributions to help offset snow expense. P.S. It is not too late to contribute to Haiti and claim it on your 2009 taxes. All donations made by March 1, 2010 can be claimed on your 2009 tax return. Consult your tax professional for more information.

The Lenten Season

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy.

Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.

Guard me, O Holy Spirit, that I myself may always be holy.

- St. Augustine of Hippo

Stations of the Cross will be offered each Friday during Lent at 7:30 p.m. in the Church. Take time to participate in this venerable tradition of the Church and meditate on our Lord's sacrifice for our sins.

Church Regulations Regarding Fast and Abstinence:

Abstinence from meat (beast or fowl) is to be observed by all Catholics fourteen years old and older on Ash Wednesday and on all the Fridays of Lent. This obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products, or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat.

Fasting means limiting oneself to one full meal on a given fast day. Catholics who are eighteen years of age but not yet fifty-nine are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On fast days two additional smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength. However, the two smaller meals together may not equal one full meal. Moreover, eating solid foods between meals on fast days is not permitted.

The Blessed Sacrament

THIS IS MY BODY – THIS IS MY BLOOD

Eucharistic Adoration and Holy Hour

A Holy Hour is simply an hour set-aside totally for the Lord; an hour consecrated to God. It is a time to recollect our mind, heart and spirit in order to focus them on God and more specifically our Eucharistic Lord. To make a Holy Hour is to make a decision to spend one hour with our friend, our Savior and Lord who is truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the altar.

The Church and the world have a great need of Eucharistic worship. Jesus waits for us in this sacrament of love. Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Him in oration and in contemplation that is full of faith, and ready to make reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world. May our adoration never cease.

– John Paul II

To sign up for adoration or for information regarding adoration please contact Diane Cieslak 703.678.3919.

24 hour Eucharistic Adoration begins after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on Wednesday and ends with reposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 8:55 a.m. on Thursday.

24 hour Eucharistic Adoration also begins after the 9:00 a.m. Mass on every First Friday of the month and ends with reposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 8:55 a.m. on Saturday.

Holy Hour is every Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m.

Communion and Blessings

A very common liturgical abuse of our times happens during the reception of Holy Communion when persons who cannot receive Communion nevertheless line up with their arms crossed over their chest, as a “message” to the priest that they want a blessing instead of Communion. This is liturgically incorrect on a number of levels. First and foremost, the time for Communion is the time for Communion. The Communion line is not, and should not be, the blessing line. Secondly, the liturgical actions of the priest during Mass are highly regulated, and quite specific of what to do and when to do it. The actions of a good liturgist may seem spontaneous, but they are not and should not be.

Unfortunately, owing to the confused time in which we live, some people are instructed to present themselves, arms crossed, before the priest at Communion time for a blessing. To make things even more confused, some people present themselves with crossed arms as a sign that they wish to receive on the tongue! Children who have not yet made their first Communion may come up with their parents who are receiving, but should not present themselves individually for a blessing. Others, who cannot receive, for whatever reason, should remain seated. The proper time for the blessing follows the prayer after Communion, which blessing all receive together.

St. Catherine's Book Corner!!

Did you know that St. Catherine's has a small but very good Book Corner? It can be found in the Narthex to the left of the door entering the Church. Please check it out, each book has a price slip which you need to remove and put in the small white envelope along with your payment. Just slip the envelope under the door of the Religious Education office.

Book selection of the month, 20% off:

Homosexuality and the Catholic Church by Father John F. Harvey O.S.F.S.

Father Harvey is the Director of the Courage and Encourage support groups and is well aware of the sensitive nature of homosexuality. With his extensive experience ministering to those with same-sex attraction, Fr. Harvey presents the Church's teaching in an objective and pastorally-sensitive manner. Priests, religious, and laity alike will benefit from the many questions considered in this book including:

- What is the basis of the Church's teaching regarding homosexuality?
- What do many consider to be the cause of same-sex attraction?
- Can a person overcome same-sex attraction?
- Why is it important for civil law to limit marriage to one man and one woman?
- How can a person live the virtue of chastity joyfully?

Fr. Benedict Groeschel's comment about this book:

"Read this book and rejoice that the work of the Holy Spirit still continues in our confused world."

From the Chancellor's Desk

Can Holy Water fonts be emptied during Lent?

- No. In some places, the practice has arisen of removing Holy Water from the fonts during the season of Lent and replacing it either with nothing or with other material (e.g., sand). This practice likely is intended to make Lent more of a "desert" experience so that the baptismal water at Easter may be more greatly appreciated. However, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has clarified that this practice of emptying the Holy Water fonts during Lent is not permitted. (Letter of March 14, 2003). The Congregation reminds us that the practice of the Church has been to empty the Holy Water fonts on the days of the Sacred Triduum (i.e., after the Evening

Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday). This practice corresponds to those days on which the Eucharist is not celebrated (i.e., Good Friday and Holy Saturday). Therefore, Holy Water should be present in the fonts of each church throughout the Lenten season, with the exception of those days mentioned

Can Baptisms be celebrated during Lent?

- Yes. Canon 856 notes that the Sacrament of Baptism can be celebrated on any day. However, the canon singles out Sundays and the Easter Vigil as particularly appropriate times for the celebration of the sacrament. The wording of the canon includes both the Sundays and weekdays of Lent as occasions when Baptism may be administered. It should be kept in mind that postponing the celebration of Baptism until after the Easter Vigil is contrary to the prescription of canon 867 which obliges parents to present their children for baptism within the first weeks after birth. Therefore, parishes are not to delay the conferral of baptism until Easter.

The Revised Edition of the Missale Romanum

Pope John Paul II issued a revised version of the Missale Romanum, (the Roman Missal), the ritual text for the celebration of the Mass, during the Jubilee Year of 2000. Since that time, the work of translating the Roman Missal has been underway. The final sections of the English translation of this revised Roman Missal were approved by the Bishops of the United States in November, and the final recognition of the complete text from the Holy See is expected early this year.

The intention of the Congregation for Divine Worship and of the USCCB is to enable and encourage a process of preparation and catechesis for both priests and the faithful, as well as to make the texts available to composers of liturgical music who can begin to set the texts (especially the acclamations) to music in anticipation of the implementation of the texts for liturgical use. It is hoped that when the time comes to use the texts in the celebration of the Mass, priests will be properly trained, the faithful will have an understanding and appreciation of what is being prayed, and musical settings of the liturgical texts will be readily available.

Once the recognition is granted, the process of final editing and publication of the English translation will begin. In addition, the Bishops of the United States have begun a process of preparation and catechesis. Training for priests, music ministers and other liturgical leaders, as well as formation for all Catholics, will help to ensure the full and successful implementation of the new text in every parish.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has prepared a website at www.usccb.org/romanmissal/ to help American Catholics prepare for the transition to this new translation of the revised Missale
